

Two Bossier Men Arrested on Over 600 Counts of Child Pornography

BATON ROUGE, LA – Today, Attorney General Jeff Landry announced the arrests of two Bossier City men on over 600 counts of child pornography.

“Child pornography exploits the most vulnerable victims,” said Attorney General Jeff Landry. “My office is committed to arresting those who prey on children.”

Travis Henson, 41 of Bossier City, was arrested on 500 counts of Possession of Pornography Involving Juveniles (under the age of 13), Indecent Behavior with Juveniles, and Computer-Aided Solicitation of a Minor. Henson was arrested and booked into the Bossier Parish Jail as a result of a joint investigation between Attorney General Jeff Landry’s Cyber Crime Unit, the Bossier City Police Department, the Bossier City Marshal’s Office, the Bossier City Sheriff’s Office, the Shreveport Police Department, the US Air Force Office of Special Investigations, and the US Marshal’s Office

James Jarrett, 33 of Bossier City, was arrested on 100 counts of Possession of Pornography Involving Juveniles and 25 counts of Distribution of Pornography Involving Juveniles. Jarrett was arrested and booked into the Bossier Parish jail as a result of a joint investigation between Attorney General Jeff Landry’s Cyber Crime Unit, Homeland Security Investigations, the Bossier Marshal’s Office, the Bossier Parish Sheriff’s Office, the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, and Louisiana State Police.

Attorney General Jeff Landry’s Cyber Crime Unit has investigated thousands of computer crimes that have victimized children from infants to 17 years of age. To report child exploitation, call 800-256-4506.
